Art. 19. All regular members of good standing in the Society, on their dismission from the Theological Seminary, shall be considered honorary members.

Art 20. Proper persons may be admitted as honorary members.

Art 21. On the death of any attending or honorary member of the Society, a committee of three or more shall be appointed to prepare an obituary of the deceased.*

Art 3.

Sec. 5. If any member of the Society shall remain unconnected with one of the committees two months, his name shall be stricken from the roll of the Society.

Sec. 6 When any member shall have been absent from three successive meetings of his committee, without a satisfactory excuse, it shall be the duty of the committee to strike his name from the roll, and report the case to the Board of Managers. Any member thus reported shall be debarred the privileges of the library and reading room for two months, and if at that time he fail to connect himself with some committee, or if the offence be repeated, he shall, when the fact is made known to the Board of Managers, cease to be a member of the Society. This section shall not apply to those who room more than one and a half miles from the Seminary building.

Art. 10.

Sec. 3. Every member on his admission, shall pay into the hands of the Treasurer the sum of one dollar and seventy-five cents, and the farther sum of one dollar and fifty-cents every succeeding term whilst he remains a member. From the payment of these sums the members of the Standing Committee and the Librarian shall be exempt during their official terms.

Sec. 4. Every member shall pay his dues to the Society before the second stated meeting of each term, after which time no member may receive a dimission by vote of the Society until his session tax be paid; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to report to the Board the names of all delinquents. Members leaving the Seminary in debt to the Society, shall not be admitted to the list of honorary members; and the names of such persons shall be reported to the Recording Secretary by the Treasurer, and shall be entered in full in connexion with the minutes of the first meeting of the Society in the next session.
